

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The Love Foundation's primary mission is to inspire people to love each other unconditionally and become sources of courage, generosity and support to one another; and

WHEREAS, Global Love Day is a celebration that expands the individual consciousness as we are given a new opportunity each day to express ourselves, listen to our wisdom and trust the inner guidance that is a part of the human spirit; and

WHEREAS, with tolerance and compassion, we embrace diversity and together, the citizens of Jackson, Mississippi can make a monumental difference through the power of love; and

WHEREAS, in an ever-changing world, our resolve is tested almost beyond limits but we all share in the universal bond of love, interconnected and interdependent, through tragedy and triumph; and

WHEREAS, The Love Foundation, encourages everyone to espouse and practice inner peace and acknowledge Global Love Day as a day of forgiveness and unconditional love:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank E. Melton, Mayor of the City of Jackson, Mississippi, do hereby proclaim May 1, 2008 as in "The City of Grace and Benevolence" and urge all citizens to recognize and participate in its observance.

Given under my hand and seal of the City of Jackson, Mississippi, the 1st day of May, 2008

Frank E. Melton, Mayor
