Tampa Based Love Foundation Receives Proclamation from Salt Lake City Mayor For Global Love Day

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tampa, FL, March 11, 2004 — Salt Lake City Mayor Ross “Rocky” Anderson issued the first proclamation honoring Global Love Day, May 1, 2004. Tampa based non profit, The Love Foundation, which developed the idea for Global Love Day, received the official citation this week. Other Mayors and Governors are expected to follow.

In just three months since its official launch, The Love Foundation already received responses from individuals and organizations in over 24 countries showing interest and endorsing the idea. This is the first annual version of Global Love Day and this year’s theme is “Love Begins With Me.” TLF Founder, Harold W. Becker, states, “This day is a global recognition of humanity and the power of love within each individual.” Awareness for this event is spreading largely by the internet and volunteers. By accessing the Foundation’s main web site at www.thelovefoundation.com, musicians, artists, authors, homemakers, students, NGO’s, and businesses from around the world are sharing their support.

The Love Foundation is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization with the mission of inspiring people to love unconditionally. Their hope is to assist people by building a practical foundation and understanding of love within individuals and society as a whole. Their purpose and vision is to further the understanding and application of unconditional love through education, research and charitable programs. For more information, contact John T.
