Dear Mr. Becker,

On behalf of the citizens of Maine, I write this letter to help raise awareness about Global Love Day which is recognized on May 1, 2019.

Since its establishment in 2000, The Love Foundation has committed itself to a mission of inspiring people to love unconditionally. Global Love Day aims to bring people from around the world together in celebrating our humanity during a one-day universal event. In a world that often feels overcome by conflict and distrust, it is essential that we recognize that all life is interconnected and that we come together as one through the universal bond of love.

It is through respect, compassion, and forgiveness that we will create a world in which we can love one another while embracing our differences. As Governor, I encourage all Maine people to acknowledge Global Love Day and work toward "unconditionally loving each other as we love ourselves."

Thank you,
