Dear Friends:

I am pleased to recognize May 1, 2019 as "Global Love Day" in the state of Montana.

Global Love Day aims to establish a worldwide focus on "unconditionally loving each other as we love ourselves." Our world is too-often overcome by disagreement and misunderstanding. Today, we call upon people of all backgrounds and belief systems to recognize the things that unite us, instead of what divides us. This is an opportunity to celebrate the interconnectedness of human life, and the universal bonds of love, self-acceptance, and forgiveness. May we embrace diversity through respect and compassion for one another.

I commend the efforts of the Love Foundation to spread the message of love and peace in our world with the goal of joining people together all over the world in recognition of "Global Love Day." Today, we take one step closer to creating a world characterized by "global love, world peace, and universal joy." Thank you for pursuing this noble cause.

I encourage all Montanans to acknowledge "Global Love Day" on May 1, 2019.

Sincerely,
