Governors and Mayors across U.S. Issue Proclamations Recognizing Global Love Day for Tampa based Love Foundation

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tampa, FL, April 19, 2005 — Joining a rapidly growing list, Connecticut Governor Rell is the latest to issue a proclamation honoring Global Love Day for May 1, 2005. Tampa based nonprofit, The Love Foundation, which developed the idea of Global Love Day, received their 29th official citation this week. Rell joins numerous prominent U.S. Governors and Mayors from Iowa to New Jersey, Pittsburgh to Minneapolis, Salt Lake City to Raleigh honoring the day and still more are expected to follow.

This second annual Global Love Day with the theme “Love Begins With Me” will take place as various celebrations around the globe. Since its initial launch last year, TLF has received responses from individuals and organizations in over 68 countries and has 10 volunteer country coordinators around the world. TLF Founder, Harold W. Becker, states, “This day is a global recognition of humanity and the power of love within each individual.” Awareness for this event is spreading largely by the internet and numerous volunteers. By accessing the Foundation’s main web site at <http://www.thelovefoundation.com> people of all backgrounds including musicians, artists, government and religious leaders, authors, homemakers, students, NGO’s, and businesses from around the world are sharing their support.

The Love Foundation is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization with the mission of inspiring people to love unconditionally. Their hope is to assist people by building a practical foundation and understanding of love within individuals and society as a whole. Their purpose and vision is to further the understanding and application of unconditional love through education, research and charitable programs. For more information, contact John T.
