Tampa Group Joins Dozens of Cities Worldwide To Celebrate Global Love Day on May 1st

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tampa, FL, April 14, 2005 — Joining groups and organizations from around the world, Tampa will host its own local Global Love Day celebration on Sunday, May 1, 2005. The event presented by volunteers of Tampa based nonprofit, The Love Foundation, which also developed the idea for Global Love Day, invite the public to gather for “fun, music, dance, art, laughter and love” at the Lotus Room at 1101 W. Kennedy from 2 to 6 pm that day. The event is free.

This second annual Global Love Day with the theme “Love Begins With Me” will take place as dozens of various celebrations around the world. Since its initial launch last year, TLF has already received over two dozen national Governor, Mayor and Council proclamations (including the entire Tampa Bay region) and responses from individuals and organizations in over 68 countries. TLF Founder, Harold W. Becker, states, “This day is a global recognition of humanity and the power of love within each individual.” By accessing the Foundation’s main web site at <http://www.thelovefoundation.com>, people of all backgrounds including musicians, artists, government and religious leaders, authors, homemakers, students, NGO’s, and businesses from around the world are sharing their support.

The Love Foundation is a 501(c) 3 nonprofit organization with the mission of inspiring people to love unconditionally. Their hope is to assist people by building a practical foundation and understanding of love within individuals and society as a whole. Their purpose and vision is to further the understanding and application of unconditional love through education, research and charitable programs. For more information, contact John T. Goltz email jtgoltz@thelovefoundation.com .
